HOUSEWORK

Too much housework wrecks women's nerves. And the constant care of children, day and night, is often too trying for even a strong woman. A haggard face tells the story of the overworked housewife and mother. Deranged nerves, leucorrhoea and falling of the womb result from overwork. Every housewife needs a remedy to regulate her menses and to keep her sensitive female organs in perfect condition.

WINE OF CARDUI

is doing this for thousands of American women to-day. It cured Mrs. Jones and that is why she writes this frank letter:

Glendene, Ky., Feb. 10, 1901.
I am so glad that your Wine of Cardui is helping me. I am feeling better than I have felt for years. I am doing my own work without any help, and washed last week and was not one bit tired. That shows that the Wine is doing me good. I am getting fatter than I ever was before, and sleep good and eat hearty. Before I began taking Wine of Cardui, I used to have to lay down five or six times every day, but now I do not think of lying down through the day.

TIPPED THE PORTER.

The Way an American Evened Up Matters in a French Hotel.

"Powelson, the pioneer of American photography in a business sense, was a born humorist," said a prominent New York photographer the other day. "I believe he might have been a rival of Mark Twain if he had turned his attention that way. Many years ago I went over to Europe with him on a business trip, which turned out to be one of the pleasantest jaunts I ever had."

"They have a custom, or had, in the French hotels of sticking a number of candles in your room and charging you a franc each for them, whether you lighted them or not. Powelson never got reconciled to that. One day just before we left a certain hotel he said to me, looking round our room, 'Cooper, do we have to pay a franc each for all these candles?'"

"I said that was the usual charge. 'And all those porters and waiters down stairs will expect to be tipped too?'"

"I believe they will," I said. "How much?"

"Oh, about a franc, I suppose. 'All right, then.'"

"He didn't say any more at the time, but next morning when we were getting ready to start I saw him taking the candles out of the candlesticks and putting them in his pocket. When he got down stairs, Powelson pulled one of those candles out of his pocket and handed it to a porter who was waiting for a tip from him. 'Here's a franc for you. You can cash it in the office,'—New York Times.

Tibetan Skull Drums.

A drum of an extreme repulsiveness of nature is one used by the lamas of Tibet at some of their church ceremonies. For this the craniums of two skulls, preferably children's, are taken, and over the concave side of each is stretched the skin of a snake. The two skulls are then cemented at their vertices to either side of a wooden disk covered with a cotton cloth, the stretched skins being outermost. These drums are often ornamented by having the heads of devils and such like horrors, the more repulsive the better, painted upon them in red and blue colors. The method employed in playing them is rather curious. To the wooden disk between the two halves a cord is fastened, by which the drum can be suspended and then rapidly rotated. Two short cords with knobs at their ends hang down in such a way that as the drum revolves they strike alternately on either face and thus produce a regular "tum, tum."—Good Words.

Chicken Talk.

A chick a few hours out of the shell, an English zoologist tells us, has five distinct calls. Its cry when it loses sight of its mother is entirely different from the note with which it signifies that it is hungry. After being fed it utters another call expressive of its desire to be covered and to sleep. The cry of fright is a kind of "chir-r," which is used also by the hen as a warning call and never fails to bring the brood scampering to her. The clucking of a hen to her chicks is familiar enough to most people, but few know that, although there may be scores of hens in a farmyard clucking at once, the voice of each will be unmistakable to her particular brood, and moreover, every hen will know which is her own family among a whole cluster of other chicks.

Australian Slang.

A paper in Western Australia has been bewailing the uncultured "accent" adopted by "educated" children in the "Western" state schools. In proof of this such examples are given as "ee-yuh" for "here," "partickler" for "particular," "bin" for "been" and "seen" for "saw."

It is pointed out, however, that in other parts of the Australian continent a more objectionable form of language, the use of slang, predominates. A head is a "top piece" or a "napper," eyes "lamps" or "ogles," an ear is a "lug" or a "paddle box," a mouth is a "kisser" or "mush," a face is a "dial" or "phiz," and legs are "dutches," an abbreviation of "Dutch pegs."

Parepa Rosa a Coquette.

Parepa Rosa was an accomplished coquette with her audience, and she understood the public thoroughly. Good natured, vivacious and warm hearted when before the footlights, she was also shrewd and methodical in her business transactions, a combination that is seldom seen in an artist, and this fact was of material advantage later in dealing with her manager. Almost invariably upon her first appearance in an opera she would furiously "size up" the audience, indicating, as a Cleveland paper once said, that "she was counting the house before beginning her performance."—Cosmopolitan.

HE GOT THE SPANKING.

Although There Was a Mistake, the Whipping Was Deserved.

A small boy on a railroad train can easily get into trouble. A Detroit man had to leave his little son while he transacted some business with the conductor, says The Free Press, and, as was natural enough, he gave the boy careful instructions as to his behavior.

"Now, Willie," he said, "I'm going to be away just a few minutes. You sit right where you are and don't you move a bit. If you do, I'll spank you good and hard. So don't stick your head out of the window. You might have it taken off if you do. Then you wouldn't have any head, and you'd get a spanking besides."

The man went away to find the conductor. After a few minutes he came back.

There was Willie with just his feet and the seat of his trousers sticking in through the window. He seemed to be more outside than inside, and moreover, whenever the telegraph pole whizzed by and looked especially close he would make a lunge for it, as if trying to catch it.

The father did not hesitate long. He made a grab for the boy just as the latter was making a lunge for a pole. He pulled him in by the heels, laid him over his knee and began to fulfill his promise. The little fellow yelled and yelled until he almost drowned out the noise of the train, but during a lull in the uproar the father heard a snicker behind him. He laid the boy down and turned around to see what it meant.

There was his son, two seats behind and across the aisle, with two fingers stuffed in his mouth to keep his merriment in. The man looked again and rubbed his eyes, but there was no mistake.

He looked at the boy in his lap. Behind the tears was a face that he had never seen before. He had spanked some other man's son.

The Cost of Trademarks.

There was a time, a comparatively few years ago, when the question of protecting trademarks did not enter into the commercial value of the articles involved as it does now. This is due to the enormous increase in advertising health foods, cereals, patent medicines and novelties. The tariff of charges for registering trademarks in the various countries seems in some instances to be based upon the idea that authorized labels and the like are a luxury. In Zululand, Peru, Uruguay, Hongkong and Granada the tariff fixed by law for each trademark is $145 in gold, the highest on the entire list.

In this country trademarks are filed with the patent office, and the price for registering one is $55, which is the lowest rate charged anywhere. Canada charges only $60 for a general or a special trademark. There are some countries of Europe that demand $100 for registering a trademark, but in Great Britain, Germany, Austria, France and Spain the fee in each case is $75. This is the rate in the majority of the English colonies, including New South Wales and New Zealand, but in Cape Colony it is $115 and in South Africa $135. In Costa Rica also $135 is demanded.—American Wine Press.

Not His Fault at All.

They were quite newly married, and she was much too young to understand that a man takes little interest in shopping expeditions.

She had left his side to look in a window in which were exhibited some winter mantles which were "just lovely." When she returned, she took the arm which seemed to be half grudgingly proffered and sobbed:

"You don't even lo-look at anything. I want you to—to see. You do—don't care how I am dressed. You no longer lo-love me. You haven't even ker-kissed me for a whole day, and you—"

"I am extremely sorry, madam, but that is my misfortune, not my fault," said the gentleman, looking pathetically down into her face.

She looked at him and gasped. She had taken the arm of the wrong man.—Stray Stories.

Voices and Nationalities.

Is the Neapolitan musical? I think not. The repetition of two tunes without seeking a change proves something, and the rancorous character of the Neapolitan voice proves more. It is a subject for the scientist, this matter of type of voice. Is it food, climate or mode of use that affects it? For example, Russia is the natural home of the basso profundo; Spain is the country of tenors and has been from the time of imperial Rome, when the Gaditanian (Cadiz) singers brought high prices in the slave market; France produces mezzo sopranos in profusion, England contraltos, American sopranos, Naples pure screamers, and no one as yet knows why.—Musical Record and Review.

FOR THE CURE OF WARTS.

Some of the Curious Remedies That Are Used in Ireland.

Warts are not a serious malady, so one can afford to stand by and see the vulgar treatment thereof. In Wexford, lying, as it does, well within the civilized pale, they are cured by pointing a knot of straw at each disfigured digit, saying a prayer and eventually burying the straw in its native manure heap. As it rots, so disappear the warts. If this fails, a white snail is rubbed over the hands and then stuck on a thorn. Both snail and wart are believed to wither together.

A simple cure is to come across water accidentally in a hollow stone and to wash the afflicted hands therein. The virtue of accident is so great that it prevents any further development of the hard growth.

A more intricate remedy is devised in a county even closer to the metropolis than the one washed by the tide, Wexford. In Cavan, where I once acted as "local demon," the appearance of warts in a family is simultaneous with the disappearance of bacon from any neighboring cabin. In my office as justice of the peace such a case came before me.

"Why did you steal the bacon, Larry?" I inquired.

The culprit stretched out his hands, covered with curious protuberances.

"Mush! Look at them," he said. "I must cure them somehow, and nothing answers but bacon fat rubbed in."

"Why not use your own meat?" I brought the confidential answer:

"It must be stolen bacon, your honor!"—Good Words.

Sorrow She Childed.

The mother of the little girl was reprimanding her for certain shortcomings in manners and unfortunately took for her lecture a time when some friends were present. The method of conveying the moral lesson was the system sarcastic illustrated.

"Now," said the mother, flinging her skirts around the room, "do I do that way?"

"No, ma'am," replied the daughter.

"Do you hear me giggle like this?" The mother illustrated.

"No, ma'am," replied the child.

"Well, do I do like this?" The mother sprang her lips far apart, showing tightly clinched incisors.

"Only when you brush your teeth," replied the sweet child.

P. S.—That was the end of the lecture.

Dignity.

The colleagues of a new German master at an English public school had warned him that if he was not very careful he would receive but uncourteous treatment at the hands of his class. So on his first appearance in school he walked up to his desk and tapped it smartly. "Boys," he cried, "ma name is Bank, B-a-n-c-k, pronounced in the German fashion, and Ah sthand no 'omboys'!"

This suggests the story of the French master at Eton who on beginning his duties made the following speech: "I am M. Banck de Paris. I stand five feet four inches in my stockings, and I will not be bamboozled by you leetle English boys."

A Sudden Twinge

Of pain is generally the first warning of an attack of rheumatism. It feels as if the disease were in the bones or muscles, but the real cause of rheumatism is found in impure blood. In order to cure rheumatism the blood must be cleansed of the poisonous impurities which are the cause of the disease.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been very successful in the cure of rheumatism, because it entirely cleanses the blood from the poisonous substances which are the cause of the disease. It not only purifies the blood but by increasing the activity of the blood-making glands, it increases the supply of pure, rich blood which adds to the vigor of every physical organ.

Mr. R. A. McKellett, of Cades, Williamsburg Co., S. C., writes: "I had been troubled with rheumatism for twelve years, so bad at times I could not leave my bed. I was badly crippled. Tried many doctors and two of them gave me up to die. None of them did me much good. The pains in my back, hips and legs (and at times in my head) would nearly kill me. My appetite was very bad. Everybody who saw me said I must die. I took five bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and four vials of 'Pelle's,' and to-day my health is good after suffering twelve years with rheumatism."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse the bowels and stimulate the sluggish liver.

CHAINED FOR TEN YEARS

EVERY BRINGS RELIEF.

There is nothing like Asthmalene. It brings instant relief, even in the worst cases. It cures when all else fails.

The Rev. C. F. WELLS of Villa Ridge, Ill., says: "Your trial bottle of Asthmalene received in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and Asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had over-spoken yourself, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full-size bottle."

Rev. Dr. Morris Wechsler,
Rabbi of the Cong. Bnai Israel,
New York, Jan. 3, 1901.

Des. Taft Bros. Medicine Co.,
Gentlemen: Your Asthmalene is an excellent remedy for Asthma and Hay Fever, and its composition alleviates all troubles which combine with Asthma. Its success is wonderful and astonishing.

After having it carefully analyzed, we can state that Asthmalene contains no opium, morphine, chloroform or ether. Very truly yours,
REV. DR. MORRIS WECHSLER.

AYON SPRINGS, N. Y., Feb. 1, 1901.

Dr. Taft Bros. Medicine Co.
Gentlemen: I write this testimonial from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Asthmalene, for the cure of Asthma. My wife has been afflicted with spasmodic Asthma for the past 12 years. Having exhausted my own skill as well as many others, I chanced to see your sign upon your windows on 130th street, New York, I at once obtained a bottle of Asthmalene. My wife commenced taking it about the first of November. I very soon noticed a radical improvement. After taking one bottle her Asthma has disappeared and she is entirely free from all symptoms. I feel that I can consistently recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease.

Yours respectfully, O. D. PHELPS, M. D.

Dr. Taft Bros. Medicine Co.
February 5, 1901.
Gentlemen: I was troubled with Asthma for 22 years. I have tried numerous remedies, but they have all failed. I ran across your advertisement and started with a trial bottle. I found relief at once. I have since purchased your full-size bottle, and I am ever grateful. I have a family of four children, and for six years was unable to work. I am now in the best of health and am doing business every day. This testimony you can make use of as you see fit.

H. H. GRANICE - EDITOR

OUR SPECIAL EDITION.

THE preliminary work of issuing a special edition of this paper is now in progress. The task has been undertaken by Mr. J. P. McDonnell and Miss C. C. Granice, and no pains or expense will be spared in making this a highly creditable issue and one that will prove an important factor in bringing before Eastern people the manifold charms and advantages of the beautiful Sonoma Valley. Several thousand copies will be printed and distributed in a way that will be sure to redound to the benefit of our lovely valley.

THE Los Angeles Board of Trade had one thousand paying members at $1.00 per month at the time of its organization. The first month's dues of $1,000 were put into advertising. This is one of the reasons why Southern California is so well known in the East.

A MAN who was released from Folsom prison, one day last week, celebrated the event by going on a big drunk. He was in jail again before night. Bars evidently have some peculiar attraction for this individual.

SANTA CLARA county is to have a blossom festival. No doubt flowery speeches will be in order on this occasion.

DISCOVERY OF GOLD BEARING QUARTZ.

J. T. Medford Records the Find Which is Located Six Miles from Town

J. T. Medford, who owns a mountain ranch on Stuart creek, six miles northwest of Sonoma, on Wednesday last filed with County Recorder Wright a notice of location for a gold quartz claim, which he has named the "Cochise." Mr. Meddock claims that his find is the real thing and says he will commence development operations on his mine immediately. The quartz lead has been traced a distance of fifteen hundred feet.

Hon W S Staley in Town.

Hon. W. S. Staley, who recently resigned the office of Deputy United States Marshal of Alaska, was in town yesterday. Mr. Staley is now living with his family at his home in Kenwood and will not return to Juneau, which has been his headquarters for several years. In fact he resigned the office to join his family in this valley.

Boyes' Hot Springs.

Winter or summer Boyes' Hot Springs are much sought after by bathers. On Sunday last over forty people from San Francisco alone patronized the bath houses of these celebrated springs.

The regular meeting of the High School Board of Trustees will be held Saturday, April 7th, at 2:30 P. M.

Spring Medicine

There's no season when good medicine is so much needed as in Spring, and there's no medicine which does so much good in Spring as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Do not delay taking it. Don't put it off till your health tone gets too low to be lifted.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Will give you a good appetite, purify and enrich your blood, overcome that tired feeling, give you mental and digestive strength and steady nerves.

Be sure to ask for HOOD'S, the best medicine money can buy. It is Peculiar to Itself

Bad Feelings in Spring—"In the spring I was feeling very badly. My blood was very poor. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It did me much good. I think it is a wonderful spring medicine and recommend it to all sick and suffering."

GLEN ELLEN.

Social at the Mervyn---Brakeman O'Rourke's Sparkler.

ED. INDEX-TRIBUNE:

It was the writer's good fortune to beat the Hotel Mervyn in Glen Ellen last Saturday evening, at which time a dance was given by Mr. J. W. Ping, which was attended by the party-loving people of the town. Following are the names of a few of the great many ladies and gentlemen who were present: Mr. and Mrs. Ping, Miss Eva Ping, Mr. and Mrs. William Suttentfield, Mrs. Ogan, Miss Pearl Allen, Miss Ray Steele, Miss Glen, Miss Pearl Ogan, Miss Friebe, Miss Monahan, and Messrs. C. Amos Hewitt, James O'Rourke, Jack O'Near, T. Blair Green, Julius Martens, Thos. Monahan and Mr. Shank.

The toilets of the ladies were especially becoming, several of the gowns being quite noticeable for their elegance.

Mr. C. A. Hewitt, the genial railroad agent, wore his usual classical cast of countenance with becoming dignity, and his step on the floor was quite elastic and his poise graceful.

Mr. William Suttentfield of the Home was especially noticeable for his very graceful and stylish appearance. He is a splendid dancer, and so far as we could see, was making the most of his opportunity.

Mr. Jack O'Near, also of the Home, was the cynosure of all eyes because of his handsome appearance, commanding figure and stately tread.

Then there was our esteemed friend, Mr. Shank, who seemed to enjoy himself to the utmost, and wore with an air of cheerful satisfaction his rosy complexion and neck-tie to match.

Mr. T. Berry of the Home, and a sprinter of note, fully sustained his reputation as he tripped the light fantastic in hurricane style.

Mr. T. Blair Green, the popular conductor of the California Northwestern Railway, a gentleman of Chesterfield bearing, was the object of the admiring glances of more than one of the ladies present.

Mr. James O'Rourke, the popular brakeman, wore a cheerful countenance, and his beautiful wavy hair was much admired. At this point we would relate an incident which occurred, showing how railroad men will carry the insignia of their occupation into their social life. While the writer was engaged in conversation with a number of ladies a sudden and brilliant flash of light came from the other end of the room. A waltz was on. The light would flash and then disappear, to be followed by another flash, and so on, resembling somewhat a locomotive in the distance coming around numerous curves. Later, when the cause of this illumination came near enough to be distinguished, it was discovered to proceed from brakeman O'Rourke's magnificent bull's-eye sparkler, which no doubt enabled him to round with safety and grace the many ten-degree curves of the waltz.

Mr. Julius Martens was there also, and he gave a neat exhibition of his agility, his style of dancing being that in vogue at some time in the dim and distant past, but nevertheless he appeared to enjoy himself immensely.

The music was by Mrs. Pauli and her son Roy. A SUBSCRIBER.

Glen Ellen, March 17th, 1902.

Joseph Pritchard Dead.

Joseph Pritchard, for the past twenty years a resident of Schellville, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Goodman on Thursday morning last. The old gentleman's health had been failing for some time and a few months ago he sold his little farm on the banks of Sonoma creek to John Guilfoyle and retired from the active pursuits of life. Mr. Pritchard was a bachelor and was aged 86 years. The remains were taken to San Francisco yesterday morning by Mr. Goodman and will be cremated in Cypress Lawn cemetery in compliance with the wishes of the deceased.

Eugene Donaldson, Sergeant in the regular U. S. Army, is home on a furlough. He is at present stopping with his sister Mrs. Robt. Douglas. Mr. Donaldson, after returning from the Philippines over a year ago, was assigned to the army post at Fort Dodge. He has seen some pretty rough service and his health is badly shattered in consequence. For months he lay in a hospital suffering from rheumatism, and owing to lack of proper care and attention was reduced in weight from 165 to 82 pounds. He has been picking up for some time and is rapidly regaining his former weight.

HOME AND CHILD

Does your horse "feel his oats"? What a difference between the grain-fed and the grass-fed horse! The first strong and full of ginger, the second flabby, weak and tired out before he begins. The feeding makes the difference. Children are not alike either. One is rosy, bright-eyed, full of life and laughter, another is pale, weak and dull. The feeding again is responsible. Sickly children need special feeding. They don't "feel their oats". Scott's Emulsion adds just the right richness to their diet. It is like grain to the horse. The child gets new appetite and strong digestion. Scott's Emulsion is more than food. It is a strong medicine. It rouses up dull children, puts new flesh on thin ones and red blood into pale ones. It makes children grow. Scott's Emulsion makes ordinary food do its duty.

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample.

SECRETS WOMEN KEEP AT THE PRICE OF SUFFERING.

A woman usually passes through several stages on her way to that condition of semi-invalidism which limits the activities of so many of her sex. For a time she is in a state of ignorance, not able to relate her sufferings to their proper cause—womanly disease. When, presently, she makes the discovery that her general health is related to the local womanly health, she casts about for help. She dislikes to see the physician, she shrinks from talking to a stranger of the intimate matters of her woman's life, and when at last misery drives her to the doctor, her modesty is up in arms at the faintest hint of examination, and she finds excuse to put the matter off and goes home to endure another period of suffering. It would seem a strange thing if the sacrifice of modesty were necessary to the restoration of womanly health. Such a sacrifice is not necessary. Women suffering from womanly ailments in almost all stages have found a perfect and permanent cure by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

A FREE OFFER.

To those women who suffer from disease in chronic form, Dr. Pierce offers the privilege of free consultation by letter, thus avoiding the unpleasant questionings, indecent examinations and obnoxious local treatments deemed necessary by some local physicians. All correspondence held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

This offer of free consultation by letter should not be confused with offers of "free medical advice" which are made by persons without medical knowledge or experience, and who are barred, legally and professionally, from the practice of medicine. Though these "free" cannot practice medicine, because the law would be prompt to punish them, they can offer "free medical advice." Anybody can give advice without incurring the penalty of the law. It is well to remember, that the "medical" advice of an unqualified person, man or woman, is worse than worthless; it is absolutely dangerous.

As chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., Dr. Pierce, assisted by his staff of nearly a score of physicians, has, in a little more than thirty years, treated and cured hundreds of thousands of weak and sick women. Write, therefore, to Dr. Pierce, and get the opinion of a specialist upon your disease.

"About two years ago my health became very poor," writes Mrs. Winde Hamilton, of Akron, Plymouth County, Iowa. "I suffered with pain and soreness in left side of abdomen and such bearing-down pains across me. Could scarcely walk at times, and would have to go to bed until I felt better. I was told by a physician that my complaint

A Printer Greatly Surprised.

"Never was so much surprised in my life as I was with the results of using Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says Henry T. Crook, press man of the Asheville (N. C.) Gazette. "I contracted a severe case of rheumatism early last winter by getting my feet wet. I tried several things for it without benefit. One day while looking over the Gazette, I noticed that Pain Balm was positively guaranteed to cure rheumatism, so bought a bottle of it and before using two thirds of it my rheumatism had taken its flight and I have not had a rheumatic pain since." was ulceration of the uterus, but I did nothing for it at the time, but as I gradually grew worse I began to see that I must do something, and having read a great deal about Dr. Pierce's remedies, I resolved to consult him in regard to my complaint. I did so, and received an answer advising me to try his medicines—'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I procured the medicines as soon as I could and began the use of them. I have taken four bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and two of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and used also the local treatment advised by Dr. Pierce. I experienced relief almost from the first, as it almost immediately relieved the bearing-down pains, and in about two months' time I felt that my health was wonderfully improved. I can most heartily recommend Doctor Pierce's remedies to anyone suffering from any similar complaint, and feel sure that if they will consult Dr. Pierce, they need suffer no longer.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It establishes regularity, dries disagreeable and unhealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It is the best preparative for maternity, giving mental cheerfulness and physical strength and making the baby's advent practically painless. As a tonic for weak, worn-out, run-down women and nursing mothers, 'Favorite Prescription' is unsurpassed. It is a pure vegetable preparation and cannot disagree with the most delicate constitution.

DON'T PUT IT OFF. Do not delay the use of 'Favorite Prescription' if you have any symptoms of womanly disease. Why drag around for years, enduring useless suffering, when a remedy that has cured hundreds of thousands of weak and sick women is right within your reach? Get 'Favorite Prescription,' take it, and be well.

"When I first commenced using Dr. Pierce's medicines," writes Mrs. Geo. A. Strong, of Ganesboro, Saratoga County, N. Y., "I was suffering from female weakness, a disagreeable drain, bearing-down pains, weak and tired feeling all the time. I dragged around in that way for two years, and then I began taking your medicine. After taking the first bottle I began to feel better. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, two of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and one of the 'Pleasant Pellets,' also used one bottle of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Now I feel like a new person. I can't thank you enough for your kind advice and the good your medicine has done me."

"I have a sister who is taking your medicine, and it is helping her."

Whenever a laxative medicine is required, use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets with 'Favorite Prescription,' as they assist the action of that remedy.

Sometimes a dealer, tempted by the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious preparations, will offer a substitute for 'Favorite Prescription' as 'just as good.' Judged by its records of cures of womanly ills, there is no other medicine just as good as 'Favorite Prescription.'

QUESTIONS ANSWERED. The questions which many a woman longs to ask are answered fully and freely in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. This great book, containing more than a thousand large pages, is full of wisdom for women, both single and married. It is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the cloth-bound volume, or only 21 stamps for the book in paper covers. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Schley's Santiago

BY GEORGE EDWARD GRAHAM.

The Intervid Associated Press was correspondent, who was aboard the U. S. S. Brooklyn during the entire five months of the campaign. Illustrated with photographs taken by the Author during the fight.

The Most Sensational Book of the Day.

The true story of the famous cruise of the Flying Squadron under Commodore Winfield Scott Schley, including the blockade and destruction of the Spanish fleet, TOLD FOR THE FIRST TIME.

Contains an autograph endorsement and personal account of the battle by Rear-Admiral Schley.

"The facts of the story of the movements and operations of the Flying Squadron as the author tells them in this book are correct."
—W. S. SCHLEY.

An interesting narrative of facts. Explains the so-called "Shotgun Movement," the "Loop," the "Cooling Problem," and settles conclusively every adverse ruling of the Court of Inquiry.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, when Governor of New York, said:—"Mr. Graham's story is the best account I have heard or read of the naval fighting during the war. It reads just as much as if it were a story of a battle."—

THE NEW YORK HERALD says:—"Mr. Graham, in the telling of facts, leaves the reader free to make the decision that several naval officers need a Court of Inquiry to re-establish their reputations, if they can be re-established."

No subject has ever been before the public that has interested everybody as the manner in which Admiral Schley has been treated, and the American people demand the full recognition of the hero of Santiago. This book tells everything just as it occurred and as the eye-witnesses saw it. Book is selling like wildfire. Liberal commissions. Quilt and books now ready. Send seven 2-cent stamps for canvassing outfit. ACT QUICK. Now is the time to MAKE MONEY. Price $1.50, $1.75, $2.25, $2.75, according to style of binding desired.

Chas. Wilson, the harness maker of Petaluma, is doing a big trade with the farmers of this valley. He is accommodating, his work and goods are good and his prices are all right. When in Petaluma give him a call if you need anything in his line. We take pleasure in recommending Mr. Wilson to the farmers of Sonoma and Vallejo Townships who do their trading in Petaluma.

P. La Torres of El Verano has engaged in a new enterprise, that of manufacturing and selling pure olive oil. He is experienced in the art and has turned out an excellent article which he is retailing at $2.50 per gallon. The olives from which the oil was produced were picked from olive groves in this valley. Should there be a fair crop of olives the coming season Mr. La Torres will engage extensively in the manufacture of this oil.

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

CARRIGER VS. PACIFIC IMPROVEMENT CO.

The Widow Wins Her Suit In the Supreme Court.

Mrs. Lizzie Carriger, widow of the late Caleb C. Carriger, when her husband died a number of years ago, came into possession of three or four two acre tracts fronting on Riverside avenue, El Verano, and—also a lawsuit. The lots were purchased by the Carrigers eight or ten years ago from Geo. H. Maxwell, the promoter of the town, who subsequently assigned all his interests in the tract to the Pacific Improvement Company. Mrs. Carriger in the meantime had improved the lots and when the P. I. Company took possession of Maxwell's interests in the town suit was commenced to oust Mrs. Carriger. Both parties to the suit apparently had an equal claim to the property and the contest in the courts for its possession has been long and vexatious. Mrs. Carriger eventually won out in the Superior Court of this county, Judge Burnett rendering judgment in her favor. From this judgment the P. I. Company took an appeal to the Supreme Court a year or two ago, since which time the decision of the "higher tribunal" has been awaited with interest by the parties to the suit and their friends. The long-delayed decision was rendered Tuesday. The Supreme Court sustains Judge Burnett, and holds that the Pacific Improvement Company had parted with its possessory title, which was in the defendant.

The decision in no wise affects the title to any of the holdings of the P. I. Company in El Verano except the property in controversy.

MERVYN HOTEL SOLD.

J. Chauvet Disposes of the Property to P. Monahan.

The Mervyn Hotel of Glen Ellen, one of the most popular summer resorts in the Sonoma Valley, has changed hands. On Monday last J. Chauvet disposed of the property to P. Monahan, the consideration being spot cash. Mr. Monahan, the new owner, is well known to the people of this valley. He is possessed of abundant means and will make many desirable improvements to his purchase. The Mervyn is located in one of the most picturesque spots in the valley and in Mr. Monahan's hands will be in every way an up-to-date summer resort.

For City Treasurer.

We announce this week among other candidates for municipal offices the names of two of our townsmen who will submit their names to the voters for City Treasurer at the election to be held on Monday, April 14th.

Martin Muldry, who was early in the field for the office, is a pioneer resident of Sonoma and a man of the strictest business integrity. He is an Odd Fellow and a successful business man and in every way qualified for the position.

William Clewe, the other aspirant, was born and raised in this place and is related to our oldest families. He is possessed of excellent clerical abilities. He has been Treasurer of the Sonoma Fire Company for a number of years and is very popular with the young men of the town.

Should either be elected it is safe to assume that the city's cash will be in careful hands.

Eastern Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Rice of Waltham, Mass., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Hall several days this week. Mr. and Mrs. Rice have been touring the State and their travels have taken them all through Southern California, the Santa Clara Valley, Monterey county and other favored sections of the State. Upon viewing the lovely and fruitful Sonoma Valley they were delighted, and expressed the opinion that it was the most beautiful spot they had seen in all their travels.

For City Trustee.

L. Quartaroli announces himself in another column as a candidate for City Trustee at the election to be held on April 14th. Mr. Quartaroli has resided in this place for nearly twenty years. He is the proprietor of the City Hotel and is well and favorably known to our citizens. He is in favor of good streets, the beautifying of the Plaza and other improvements that will attract people to our town and increase its prosperity.

EL VERANO HAPPENINGS.

Other Items of Interest as Recorded by "You Know."

A. W. Weaver was a visitor to San Francisco Saturday.

Wm. Monahan of the Bay City was a Sunday visitor here.

Frank A. Riser was an El Verano visitor to Santa Rosa Sunday.

Eugene Dutil, who is now living in San Francisco, visited his folks in this place Sunday.

The addition to the Bellevue Hotel is being painted. Doc Wilson and Fred. Bulotti are doing the work.

Prof. C. T. Wilkinson and wife of Berkeley spent Saturday and Sunday on their ranch near this place.

Miss Mary Chance is visiting her parents in this place. She will return to San Francisco in a few weeks.

L. McDonough, after spending several days in San Francisco, returned to the El Verano Villa Saturday morning.

A large crowd from this side of the creek will take in the entertainment and dance of the class of '03 of the High School.

Frank La. Torres, one of our most popular young men, has left for his San Francisco home, where he will reside in the future.

Miss Grace Carmer was a passenger on the Southern Pacific to Glen Ellen Saturday evening, where she attended the hop at the Mervyn Hotel.

W. M. Mullen of the Union Iron Works, San Francisco, was in town Sunday visiting his folks. Young Mullen is now studying to be a draughtsman.

Another saloon is making its way in the eastern part of town. It will be run as a road house and will be located near the Verano depot of the California Northwestern railway. Its promoters are two young men hailing from Glen Ellen and Santa Rosa.

Dr. J. W. Jessie of Santa Rosa, County Health Officer, was called to this place Sunday to inquire into the bad sewerage system of the town. The Health Officer said that all open sewers would have to go and cesspools be dug immediately.

The weather permitting fishermen can depend upon a fine mess of trout on the opening day of the season as the law-breakers, in dread of Constable Ohm, have quit their sneaky work. Sonoma creek will be the favorite stream on the opening day.

M. F. Mullen, the faithful and accommodating agent of the Southern Pacific Company at this place, is recovering from the effects of sewer gas poisoning after an illness of two weeks. R. E. Denehy, a young railroad man from Acampo, is relieving him.

The Southern Pacific train was delayed last Saturday owing to the wreck of a cattle train at Vallejo Junction. Several cars were demolished and a number of cattle killed. Fortunately the train hands escaped without injury. The smash-up delayed the passenger train due here over six hours.

El Verano had another runaway this week. On Monday last Mr. Johnson of the Nordwell ranch, drove up to a road house in this place to water his horses. He dismounted from his seat on the wagon and the animals became frightened at a dog, after he had relinquished the reins, and ran away. The snorting equines were caught by A. W. Weaver who, with the assistance of neighbors, finally brought the animals to a standstill.

Miss Tillotson, "the grafter," was in town Sunday. She arrived here with the intention of working our people, but they had all seen the account of her doings in the INDEX-TRIBUNE and were dead next. She was very quiet while here, and after canvassing the town and seeing that she could not transplant her graft in this place she left on the evening train for Glen Ellen, taking the cars next morning for Vallejo. Tra la! may you have better luck in other towns.

A FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

Will Hold Three Sessions In Union Hall on April 5th.

A Farmers' Institute will convene in Union Hall on Saturday, April 5th. The institute will be held under the auspices of El Verano Grange, P. of H., of this place, and will consist of three sessions—morning, afternoon and evening. There will be addresses by Professors Fowler, T. W. and Loughridge of the University of California and others.

El Verano Grange has appointed the following committee to make the necessary arrangements for the holding of the institute: Hon. Robt. Howe, R. J. Dowdall, Jas. Tate, Joseph Potter and Ed. Dowdall.

This committee in turn has appointed the following citizens to assist: F. T. Duhring, F. J. Kerridge, L. Quartaroli, Will Clewe and R. G. Shoults.

A meeting of these committees is called for tomorrow in Odd Fellows Hall at 2 p. m.

Back from Manila.

Friend McHarvey, who enlisted in the United States Navy just after the outbreak of the Spanish-American war, arrived at his old home in this place Saturday evening and is the guest of his grandmother Mrs. Chas. McHarvey. The young man, he is only twenty-one years of age, has seen much hard service in the Philippines and China and during his absence has traveled pretty much all over the world. He was honorably discharged from Uncle Sam's service last September and made his way home by sailing vessel, being five months en route from Manila. He will remain in Sonoma and try the life of a landlubber as in the days of yore.

Sport for Fishermen.

The season for trout opens on Tuesday, April 1st, and great sport is anticipated by local and visiting fishermen next month, provided the weather is not too showery. The rains which fell all through February set all the streams in the valley a booming and for the first time in five years the trout had an opportunity to reach the headwaters of every stream that flows into the valley during every day in February. Should the balance of this month prove to be stormy the fishing in May and June will be better than in April. For the information of fishermen we will state that besides Sonoma creek there are eighteen other trout streams tributary to it in the mountains east and west of it, all of which will be "dandies" this season.

Pressie Smith Becomes a Benedict.

The many friends of Pressie P. Smith in this valley will be surprised to learn that he has become a Benedict. He was married to Miss Ida Sawyer of Reno, Nevada, on the 2nd inst. Mr. Smith, who is a brother of Mrs. G. H. Hotz of this place, after leaving here some years ago, located in Reno, where he has established himself in business. The young couple have gone to housekeeping in that place, where the bride and groom have many friends.

Evidently the people of Kenwood are dead easy. The Mite Society of that bloomin' town has taken Miss Tillotson, the female grafter, under its protecting wing and has sent the following to the newspapers for publication:

"3, 14, 1902—A very pretty entertainment was given for the Kenwood Mite Society last night by Miss Lottie Tillotson of St. Paul, Minn. At the conclusion of the entertainment she was presented with a handsome floral offering and she gracefully responded to three successive encores."

Dunbar Improvement Club.

The progressive citizens of the Dunbar school district have organized an improvement club for the betterment of the roads in that part of the valley. A special meeting of the club was held at the district school house near Drummond's station Saturday afternoon. The report of the committee appointed at a previous meeting to inquire into the proposed change of road leading to the school house was accepted. Meers, Ashe, Le-moine and Weise were selected by the club to appear before the Board of Supervisors and request that County Surveyor Smyth make a preliminary survey of the proposed change in the road. It was also the sense of the club that the Frid-gar road be repaired and supplied with necessary drains. This road can be converted into one of the finest mountain drives in the State at small expense and will receive due attention from Supervisor Hart. The road for several miles commands a magnificent panoramic view of the valley and is one of the attractions of visiting sight-seers.

The Lloyd Agency Store.

Since the Lloyd Agency of Petaluma has been using the newspapers to advertise its goods the store has been almost overwhelmed with orders. Last Saturday five hundred orders were filled which were followed on Monday by three hundred more. The Lloyd Agency is conducting one of the largest merchandise stores in Petaluma. The goods are all fresh, being ordered by the car-load from the East. A large warehouse in the rear of the store is filled to the ceiling with everything needed to supply your homes. All who have patronized this store have been astonished and pleased with the prices and quality of the goods. See adv in another column.

THEY CRUSH THE POWERS

This is written in mid-October. The long, oppressive summer is quite gone. Fading leaf, withering tree and the rustling corn in the fields are signs of the season. Fog, frost, rain, snow—they are coming. You remember last winter; of 1900 and 1901. The weather was cruel. All the thousands it killed, and the hundreds of thousands it maimed and crippled. Oh, the rough grasp it laid on men at work, women at home, and children in cribs and cradles. Coughs that began before Thanksgiving. Day are racking and tearing them still, yes, and growing worse as they dig deeper into the poor, tired throat and lungs. May were cured by using Benson's Porous Plasters. For the soothing and healing power of these Plasters is wonderful. They conquer the complaints

THAT ARE KILLING THE PEOPLE.

No other plaster, no other medicine or application, can compare with them. Coughs, colds, backache, rheumatism, lumbago, kidney and liver troubles, asthma, influenza—they all go down before Benson's Plasters like a snow image in the sun. You can't throw money away on a Benson's Plaster. Everybody is going to use them this season. But make certain you get the genuine. All druggists, or we will prepare postage on any number ordered in the United States on receipt of 25c. each. Seabury & Johnson, Mfg. Chemists, N. Y.

A UNIQUE BIBLE.

One of the Art Treasures of the Congressional Library.

Perhaps the most beautiful volume among the 500,000 in the Congressional library at Washington is a Bible which was transcribed by a monk in the sixteenth century. It could not be matched today in the best printing office in the world. The parchment is in perfect preservation. Every one of its 1,000 pages is a study. The general lettering is in German text, each letter perfect and every one of them in coal black ink, without a scratch or blot from lid to lid.

At the beginning of each chapter the first letter is very large, usually two or three inches long, and is brightly illuminated in blue or red ink. Within each of these initials there is drawn the figure of some saint, or some incident of which the following chapter tells is illustrated. There are two columns on a page, and nowhere is traceable the slightest irregularity of line, space or formation of the letters. Even under a magnifying glass they seem flawless. The precious volume is kept under a glass case, which is sometimes lifted to show that all the pages are as perfect as the two which lie open.

A legend relates that a young man who had sinned deeply became a monk and resolved to do penance for his misdeeds. He determined to copy the Bible, that he might learn every letter of the divine commands he had violated. Every day for years he patiently pursued his task. Each letter was wrought with reverence and love, and the penitent soul found its only companionship in the saintly faces which were portrayed on these pages.

Sanitation in the Middle Ages.

The Greeks and Romans paid special attention to the physical culture of their youth, to public water supplies and baths, and Athens and Rome were provided with sewers early in their history.

During the middle ages sanitation received a decided check, and this was the most insanitary period in history. Most European towns were built compactly and surrounded by walls. The streets were narrow and winding, and light and air were excluded. The accumulation of filth was frightful. Stables and houses were close neighbors. The dead were buried within the churchyards or in the churches. Wells were fed with polluted water.

All conditions were favorable for the spread of infectious diseases, and in the fourteenth century alone the oriental or bubonic plague, the black death of recent historians, carried off a fourth of the population of Europe. The birth rate was much less than the death rate normally. The cities had to be continually repopulated from the country.

The Angels Came Too Readily.

A Georgia dandy went out on an old field to "seek and pray."

It was dusk, and he knelt down and put up a long petition that the angels would come and minister unto him.

Presently he heard a flapping of wings behind him, and in a second he was making race horse time on the home road, where he jumped into bed and covered his head.

Suddenly there was a loud knocking at the door, and his startled wife cried:

"John, git up dar, fer de Lawd sake! De angels you been seekin' is come fer you!"

"Le'm stay dar," was the trembling answer. "Teh 'em thoo' de keyhole dat I ain't got no wing ter fly wid, en I too heavy ter tote!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Don't Talk Your Aches and Pains.

As soon as possible dismiss from the mind every suggestion that has to do with illness. If you have had an operation and it is over, let it glide into the shadowy background of memory. Do not dwell upon it. Do not talk about it. Cultivate thought about others, about the great round world, about its heroes and its martyrs, its battles and its victories, its happy homes and loving hearts, but utterly turn from the night side of suffering, except as you may relieve it, and dwell in the blessed sunshine. There is no sweet-thing on earth than to be one of God's light bringers and to make those about you stronger because you are uncompaining.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Potatoes.

To test the quality of potatoes cut one in half and rub the two pieces together. If it is nice and mealy, they will stick together, and there will be a show of froth at the edges and on the surfaces, but water should not run out even under pressure. The color of the meat should be white or of a yellowish tinge. The opinion that entirely yellow potatoes do not boil well is not well founded, for there are some yellow varieties that leave nothing to be desired in this respect.

Having a Run on Chamberlain's

Cough Remedy.

Between the hours of eleven o'clock A. M. and closing time at night on Jan. 25th, 1901, A. F. Clark, druggist, Glade Springs, Va., sold twelve bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says, "I never handled a medicine that sold better or gave better satisfaction to my customers." This Remedy has been in general use in Virginia for many years, and the people there are well acquainted with its excellent qualities. Many of them have testified to the remarkable cures which it has effected. When you need a good, reliable medicine for a cough or cold, or attack of the grip, use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and you are certain to be more than pleased with the quick cure which it affords. ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 720 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.

Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost.
